Retired from the industry? Now you can keep in touch with the friends you have made through the National Association of Tower Erectors by becoming a Retired NATE Member today!

Retired NATE Member Policy

- Annual Dues - $240.00. Membership dues are based on a July 1 – June 30 fiscal year. (Refer to the Membership Dues Schedule on page 20 for the first year's pro-rated dues).
- Retired Members are individual memberships, not company memberships.
- Individual must have been employed in the tower industry for a minimum of five (5) years prior to their retirement. The five years can be with different companies, as long as it totals a minimum of five years directly involved in the tower industry.
- Individual must be retired from a NATE member company or sponsored by a current member.
- Individual must be sponsored for each renewal period.
- Retired Members are Non-Voting Members.
- Retired Members are not allowed to purchase safety and educational materials.

Retired NATE Member Benefits

- Continued involvement and participation in the Association;
- Other members benefit from your experience and knowledge;
- Receive one issue of Tower Times magazine monthly;
- Receive the member rate when registering for the NATE Annual Conference & Exposition; and
- Recognition in Tower Times magazine and the NATE website.

Keep in touch with the friends you have made in the tower industry through NATE membership!

MEMBERSHIP DUES SCHEDULE

NOTE: MEMBERSHIP DUES ARE NON-REFUNDABLE

NATE membership dues are based on a July 1 - June 30 fiscal year. Refer to the chart below for your first year's prorated dues. Membership dues received after the 20th of the month will be treated as the following month for amortizing purposes.

For example: A new Primary Voting Member with 4 employees ($1,200 annual dues) joining October 10 would pay $900 for the period of October through the end of June. The same new member joining October 25 would pay $800 for the period of November through the end of June.
